

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Law Enforcement Administration (LEA) through Distance Education is a program designed to assist the policemen, military personnel of the Armed Forces of the Philippines (AFP), and other law enforcement personnel to upgrade themselves in their career development. According to RA 8551 and Civil Service Rules and Regulations, one basis of promotion in the PNP and other military personnel is the attainment of a higher degree of education.

A ladder type curriculum is followed in this program, enabling the student to get first a Diploma in Law Enforcement Administration and eventually a Master in Development Administration-Major in Law Enforcement Administration.

OBJECTIVES

- To enhance the development of the police force, military personnel of the AFP, and other law enforcement personnel.
- To provide continuing educational opportunities (through distance education) for policemen, military personnel, and law enforcement personnel who cannot leave their work for full time studies.
- To conduct a program for professionalization of policemen, military personnel, and law enforcement personnel to make them more efficient, competent, and committed in their role of maintaining peace and order and public safety.
