MODE OF INSTRUCTION

A student enrolled will be assigned to a facilitator or tutor who has a contract with the DOUS for the duration of a course. He/She can choose between two approaches of learning: the group-paced learning wherein a group of students is required to meet a tutor at least once a month at a DOUS Learning Center, the individualized learning wherein a student uses different kinds of technology to interact with his/her tutor.

To complete a course, a student has to work on a learning package consisting of modules and other learning materials either independently or in groups. He/She is required to submit written assignments and take supervised written examinations at the learning centers.

The assignments and examinations are marked by the tutor which will be the basis for the final grade of the student.

CLIENTELE

Personnel, employees, owners/managers, and officials of local government units, line agencies, and non-government organizations, people's organizations, and other private and public entities.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

1. Applicants should fill up the DOUS Admission Form which may be obtained from any DOUS learning center.
2. Applicants should submit the accomplished form together with the credentials for evaluation by the Admission Committee.
3. The applicant will be interviewed by the Admission Committee.
4. Once qualified, the applicant can already fill up the enrolment forms.
